

海津大崎 Cherry Blossom Viewing in Kaizu-Osaki Map

Bus Stop

- Community Bus
- Shuttle Bus (operating when the blossoms are in bloom)

Shozu Cherry Blossom
Azuma Hlgan Cherry Tree which is over 300 years old. It is also praised in Minakami Tsutomu's novel "Sakuramori".

The stone wall of Kaizu Beach
Stone wall built in 1703 by Nishi Yoichizaemon, the prefectural governor, out of sympathy because of the serious harm caused to building lots by rain and wind.

Lakeside Terrace
The view of Lake Biwa's scenery is the best from here. The cherry blossoms of Kaizu-Osaki can be seen, too.

Makino Sunny Beach
Shallow beach with white sand dotted with pine trees stretching across 1 km. It is also popular as the campground with swimming facilities offering the cleanest water of the Okubiwako region!

Osaki-ji Temple
The sacred ground number 9 of the 33 temples of the Omi Saigoku Pilgrimage and is affectionately known as Osaki Kannon. Being built from blood-stained parts stemming from the surrender of Azuchi Castle, the ceiling of the Amitabha hall is known as the blood-stained ceiling of Azuchi.

Toilet facilities
During the cherry blossom viewing season, portable toilets are installed (without hand-washing facilities).

Permanent Toilets
 Portable Toilets

Lakeshore Promenade (Omi Lakeside Road)
Pedestrian Walkway stretching along the lakeshore for 2km.

Notice

- It is expected that traffic would be very crowded, so please be careful of traffic.
- Please take your garbage with you. Violators shall be punished by the law and be fined.
- Please keep to the right side of the road in a line.

How to get to Kaizu-Osaki

[On foot] (follow the → marks on the map)
Makino Station-Lakeside Terrace-Osaki Namiki-guchi (2km/30min.)
Osaki Namiki-guchi-Osaki-ji Temple (2km/30min.)

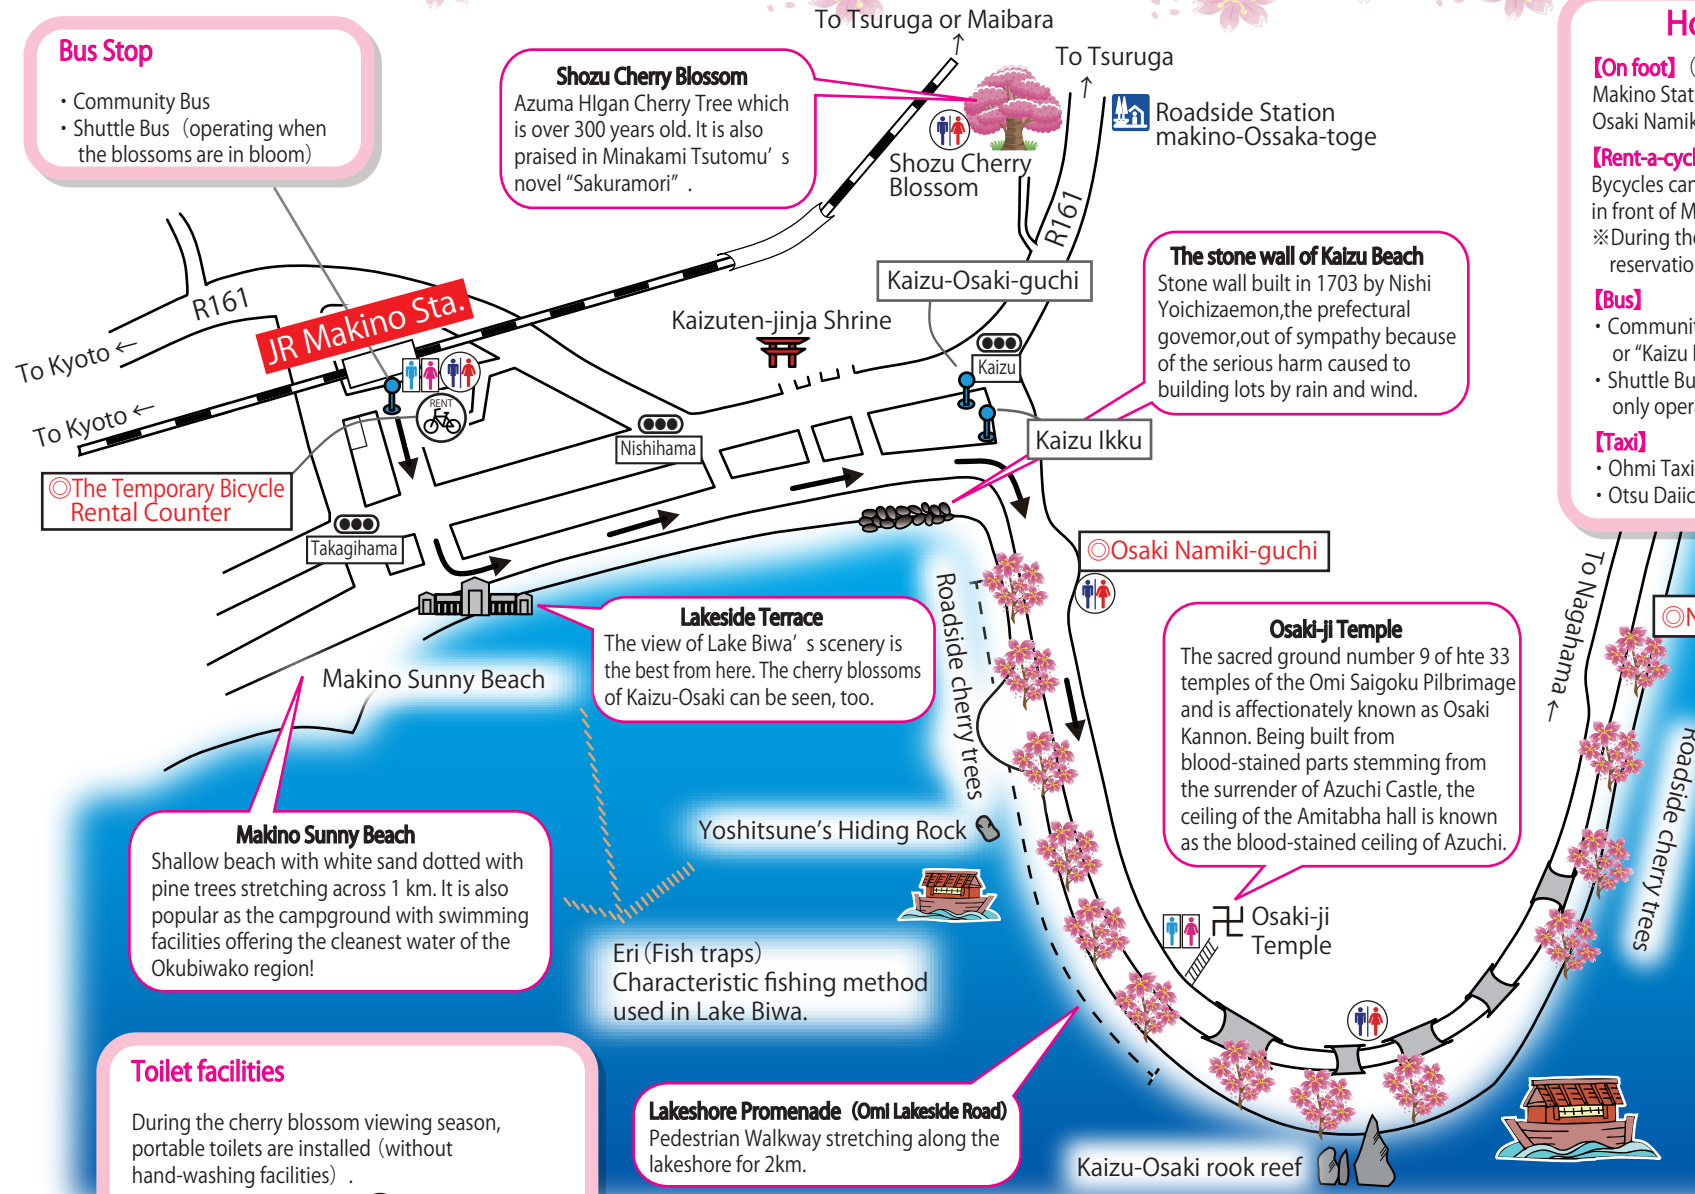

[Rent-a-cycle]
Bicycles can be rented at the temporary bicycle rental counter in front of Makino Station. (4km/30min. to Osaki-ji Temple)
※During the cherry blossom season, it is not possible to make reservations or return the bicycles at another place.

[Bus]

- Community Bus : From Makino Station to "Kaizu-Osaki-guchi" or "Kaizu Ikku"
- Shuttle Bus : Between Makino Station and Osaki Namiki-guchi, only operating on days with restricted traffic.

[Taxi]

- Ohmi Taxi 0740-22-0106
- Otsu Daiichi Kotsu 0120-524-447

Lake Biwa